Keynote Speakers

Peter Buerhaus, Ph.D., RN, FAAN

A nurse and healthcare economist well known for studies and publications on forecasting nurse and physician supply, developing and testing measures of hospital quality of care, determining public and provider opinions on issues involving the delivery of health care, and assessing the quantity and quality of health care provided by nurse practitioners.

He has published over 100 articles with five designated as "Classics" by the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) and has co-authored the book: The Future of the Nursing Workforce in the United States: Data, Trends, and Implications (2008).

Currently Dr. Buerhaus is a Professor in the College of Nursing, and Director of the Center for Interdisciplinary Health Workforce Studies at Montana State University. Previously he served at Vanderbilt University as Professor of Nursing and Professor of Health Policy; and at Harvard School of Public Health as Assistant Professor of Health Policy and Management.

Dr. Buerhaus was elected into the National Academies Institute of Medicine, is a member of the American Academy of Nursing, and served on numerous national health advisory boards. In 2010, Dr. Buerhaus was appointed to Chair the National Health Workforce Commission that was established under The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act. He currently serves as an expert advisor for the Bipartisan Policy Center's health care workforce initiative, and as a member of the Institute of Medicine Committee on Graduate Medical Education Governance and Transparency.
